Come! Live in the Light!

We Are Called

1. Come! Live in the light! Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord! We are called to be light for the kingdom, to live in the freedom of the city of God. Violent will be no more. Brothers united in love.

2. Come! Open your heart! Show your mercy to all those in fear! We are called to be hope for the hopeless so hated and we'll walk with each other as sisters and brothers united in love.

3. Sing! Sing a new song! Sing of that great day when all will be one! God will reign, we are called to act with justice; we are called to love tenderly; we are called to serve one another, to walk humbly with God.

The thematic and musical center of this hymn on the vocation of all believers is found in the refrain, which is based on the well-known challenge of Micah 6:8, “What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”
